PIUME GETS SELF RULE.

Given Sovereignty Under League.
America, France and Great Britain Concede Italian Preponderance.

Customs Union Only with Jugo-Slavia, According to Allies' Memorandum.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.) BUEENOS AIRES, Jan. 8.—Great Britain, France and the United States, conceding the Italian character of Piume, will grant that city complete sovereignty under the League of Nations, preserving only a customs union with Jugo-Slavia, according to a memorandum concerning Dalmatia and Piume recently presented by these powers to Vittorio Scialoja, the Italian Foreign Minister.

A summary of the memorandum from the Rome correspondent is published by La Nacion today.
In the memorandum, the United States, France and Great Britain recognize as reasonable the demands of Italy with respect to the islands of Pelagos, Lissa and Lunenburg, off the Dalmatian coast, granting them complete sovereignty.
The three powers concede to Italy a mandate over Albania and complete sovereignty over the city of Piume, which is necessary to its defense.
The memorandum observes that these concessions are necessary to secure sufficiently the rights and aspirations of Italy.

NO BUFFER NEEDED.
The Italian proposition to separate Piume and its environs from the rest of the city as a buffer state, completely independent, leaving the port and railroad to the state, the memorandum says, is not reasonable. It would be a buffer state in name only, and would be a source of constant friction.
In order to safeguard the Italian character and autonomy of Piume, the powers proposing the mandate are disposed to maintain the city under the protection of the League of Nations, and, as Italy is part of the League, the memorandum says it should be easy to safeguard Italian interests. The Italian demand for a corridor, which would establish territorial continuity between Piume and Italy, is held to be unreasonable and is likely to create grave economic and territorial complications.

The correspondent of La Nacion, interpreting the opinion in Italian diplomatic circles, says that the memorandum demonstrates clearly a leaning toward the ideas of President Wilson.

PREMIERS MEET IN PARIS.
ROME, Wednesday, Jan. 7.—Premiers Lloyd George and Nitti, who will confer with Premier Clemenceau, reached Paris late today. They were received by Premier Clemenceau, minister of Marine Levasseur and the Earl Derby, the British Ambassador.
The three premiers conferred for a brief period in the reception hall of the station.

COOL TOWARD JUGO-SLAVIA.
ROME, Wednesday, Jan. 7.—The Giornale d'Italia, discussing the idea suggested in some quarters that the Adriatic question be settled by direct negotiations between Italy and Jugo-Slavia, says there is no confidence in such a scheme.
Italians hold this view, the newspaper says, because "we know the exaggerated claims our adversaries have made and their absurd preten-sions which have wounded the feelings, the dignity and the rights of Italy in such a way that it is impossible even to discuss them."

Volcano Eruption.
MEXICO CITY, Jan. 8.—A violent volcanic eruption has been caused by the recent earthquake near Cordoba, where Cerro de San Miguel, a small and apparently extinct volcano, has been burst in two. The new crater is throwing out smoke, ash and flame, while lava is flooding the near-by territory in a stream more than 200 yards wide, resulting in not less than 200 deaths.

Dispatches from Vera Cruz today say every near-by eminence in this district has been leveled.
Scores of workshops in the churches at Ahuacatlan and Tehuacan were buried beneath the ruins. Great gaps in the earth appeared at San Francisco de la Penas, San Carlos, and Agostadero.

Eight Bandits Operate.
Five bandits operating in a stolen automobile held up J. J.
Freeman, proprietor of an all-night drug store, in his place of business last night and escaped with $25 from the cash register.
One man remained at the steering wheel of the car while the other four entered the drug store.
E. A. Litchner of 408 East Forty-sixth street, who was in the drug store when the bandits entered, sought to grapple with one of the highwaymen and was beaten on the head in consequence, according to Detectives Magnus and Combes, who investigated.
At the same time, three other bandits, also operating in an automobile which the police believe they stole earlier in the day, held up Charles Wolcott, manager of the Standard Oil Company's gasoline station at Twenty-fourth and Broadway streets, obtaining $15.00.

JUAREZ (Mex.), Jan. 8.—Complaint that his store at Colonia Juarez, about 250 miles southwest of Juarez, had been robbed of $5000 by bandits was made in a

The affair was reported to the Mexican authorities but they re-

Atlantic Fleet Sails.
NORFOLK (Va.), Jan. 8.—The Atlantic Fleet steamed away late today from its rendezvous off the Virginia capes for Guantanamo, Cuba, for winter maneuvers and drill practice.
The fleet, headed by the flagship Pennsylvania, blazed the sea trail southward and a flotilla of smaller craft followed in their wake.

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.), Jan. 8.— Salvador Diego Fernandez, a chief clerk in the Department of Foreign Relations at Mexico City, has been appointed Ambassador to the United States, succeeding Ignacio Bonillas, who left Mexico Monday for Washington, according to a dispatch from Mexico City to a local Mexican newspaper today.

CHICAGO SOLVES DEFICIT PROBLEM; MAKES DRY PAY.
CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—The City Council Finance committee engaged in seeking to fill the gap left by the loss of a million-dollar fee today adopted a resolution to license reform organizations. The remark from the chairman, that he would like to know where the money for the city's needs was to come from, brought from one Alderman this:
"Why not from the birds who made the country dry?" A moment later a resolution to tax reform bodies not less than $50 was introduced and unanimously adopted.

AMERICANS AMBUSHED.

Tampico Outrage is Told in Detail.
Bowles and Roney Killed in Machine by Volley Fired from the Rear.

Bodies Searched, Stripped and Kicked, According to the Wounded Driver.
BY CAPT. KENT HUNTER.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
LAREDO (Tex.), Jan. 8.— The story of what happened to Earle Bowles and F. J. Roney, employees of the International Oil Company, reached Tampico January 5.

I attempted to get the story out over the Mexican telegraph wires that night. I was told the wires were down, due to the earthquake in Vera Cruz.
Tuesday morning I started for the border by way of Monterey, and from Monterey, Tuesday night and again on Wednesday morning, tried to send out the story of how the two Americans were killed.

The Mexican telegraph officials declared that such a would have to go to Mexico City for censorship. Instead of writing it I brought it with me to the border.
Bowles and Roney were killed from ambush as they rode along the road between the towns of Laredo and Port Lope, in the Tuxpan district, of which Port Lope is the outlet. They did not have the company pay roll in their car. They had little or no money, less than $10 of American gold.

They were on their way, however, to meet a company launch which sometimes carried money, but which on this particular trip carried only supplies.
Half a mile from the launch landing a volley was fired and the car had passed. Roney was hit by two bullets, one through the back of the head and the other through the shoulder. Bowles was hit three times, once through the head and twice through the body. They were riding in the rear seat of the machine.

Their Mexican chauffeur was wounded and fainted dead, letting the car run into the swampy land beside the road.
He did not move, and seven bandits, carrying rifles, ran from the crush, searched the bodies of Bowles and Roney and his own.
Finding little of value, they kicked the dead men, stripped them of their clothes, hats and coats, and went away.
The chauffeur became unconscious and remained so until dark when he was taken to the company offices, where he was able to tell his story.
The oil company reported the case to the American consulate at Laredo, and he in turn wired a brief report to the State Department. A report of the deaths, without details, was sent to Roney's family in Houston, Tex., and to his friends in Laredo.

The bodies were taken at once to Tampico by motor launch, arriving Monday night. The companies planned to send them to the United States Tuesday morning, but as permission was not received it was necessary to get authority from Mexico City, Victoria, capital of Tampaulipas, and from the Tampico authorities.
Until Wednesday an effort to learn from the Mexican chauffeur whether the bandits were Carranza hired men or not failed to get information. He refused to answer at first and when pressed insisted that he had been too weak to see.
CLAIMS ANTI-DUTY FACT.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
MEXICO CITY, Wednesday, Jan. 7.— Petroleum producers in the Tampico district have formed a combination pledged not to pay reform duties on oil for the Federal district, according to Luis Cabrera, secretary of the Treasury, Mexico, with whom were printed here today.

"This is the only contribution levied by the Treasury Department, that must be paid before the oil leaves Mexico," the Secretary is quoted as saying. "If it is not paid exportation can be prevented and if international friction should result, Mexico would have a right on her side."
Dr. Norman Bridge, vice-president of the Mexican Petroleum Company and all its subsidiaries, last night at his Los Angeles home declared incorrect the statement attributed to Luis Cabrera, Mexican Secretary of the Treasury, that petroleum producers had formed a combination pledged not to pay reform duties on oil for the Federal district.

LODGE ACCEPTS PACT CHALLENGE.

Welcomes President's Decision to Put League Issue up to Nation.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader, declared tonight that he feared President Wilson's Jackson Day message had made impossible the hope "that in the Senate we might have come together and ratified the treaty protected by the principles set forth in the fourteen reservations."
"The President has made his position very plain," said the Senator. "He rejects absolutely the reservations adopted by a decisive majority of the Senate. He says we must take the treaty without any change which alters its meaning, or leave it. He will permit interpretation, whatever that may mean, expressing its undoubted meaning, when there is hardly a line of it which has not been questioned and given many meanings. He stands as he has always stood, for the treaty just as it is."
"The issue is clearly drawn.
Reservations intended solely to protect the United States in its sovereignty and independence are discarded by the President. He places himself squarely in the line of half of internationalism against Americanism."
"We must bear the delay inseparable from the President's attitude and appeal to the people, which I am sure will be most cordially welcomed."

BULLETINS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.) LONDON, Jan. 8.—The list of war criminals to be demanded by the Allies for trial has been compiled and is being sent to the German Government. The list from the originally proposed 1300 to about 300, according to the Daily Mail. "It was thought better," the newspaper adds, "to demand a few against whom specific charges have been lodged than a long list including many persons charged with infamous offenses. The German Crown Prince and Crown Prince Ruprecht of Bavaria remain in the list."

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Several agents of the Department of Justice were taken sick suddenly today, preventing another raid tonight against Reds. The strange malady was charged with the investigation after the agents had spent several days and nights questioning radicals in rooms where they were held. It was crowded at one time. Physicians expressed "e" opinion that the rooms were contaminated from the crowds.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—The French, British and Italian Premiers had a conference today. It was announced diplomatic relations will be resumed with Germany Sunday when the French charge d'affaires will leave for Berlin. Baron von Lersner, the German representative, will present his credentials to President Poincare.

BERGER ASKS DELAY IN OUSTING PROCEEDINGS.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Speaker Gillett received a telegram from Victor Berger today asking that proceedings involving him in the Congress be held in abeyance for a few days until his attorney, Henry F. Berger, can reach Washington.
Berger said Mr. Cochran would arrive next Monday.
Mr. Berger, who is in New York,

WILSON ASKS DEMOCRATS TO MAKE NATIONS' LEAGUE ISSUE OF NEXT CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—A split between President Wilson and William J. Bryan over whether the League of Nations should be made an issue at the coming election topped off the Jackson Day deliberations of the Democratic party chiefs. It came at the Jackson Day dinner and it charged the air with political electricity.
President Wilson, in his message read to the dinner, assembled in two separate halls, declared that the "clear and single way out" was to submit the question to the voters as a "great and solemn referendum."

FULL TEXT OF PRESIDENT'S JACKSON-DAY PACT MESSAGE.
(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—President Wilson in his message to the Jackson Day dinner here tonight said "the clear and single way" to determine the will of the American people on the League of Nations was to make it an issue at the next election.

The President's message said nothing whatever about a third term for himself and neither did it say even by implication or intimation that he would not be a candidate, as has been widely forecast. Practically all of the message was devoted to an expression of his argument of why he considered it the duty of the United States to join in the League of Nations covenant and why he considered the war not really won until it did. Another attempt to crush the new nations of Europe would be made, the President said, if the United States held aloof.

The President expressed his attitude toward reservations, such as he had in his conference with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in this language:
"If the Senate wishes to say that the unqualified meaning of the treaty is I shall have no objection. There can be no reasonable objection to interpretations accompanying the act of ratification itself. But when the treaty is signed upon I must know whether it means that we have ratified or rejected it. We cannot rewrite this treaty. We must take it without change, which after its meaning or leave it and then, after the rest of the world has signed it, we must face the unthinkable task of making another and separate kind of treaty with Germany." The text of the President's message follows:

FULL TEXT OF WILSON'S JACKSON DAY MESSAGE.
"It is with keenest regret that I find that I am to be deprived of the pleasure and privilege of joining you and other loyal Democrats who are assembled tonight to celebrate the new nations of Europe."
"I do not believe that this is what the people of the United States will be satisfied with. Personally, I do not accept the action of the Senate of the United States in its decision of the nation. I have asserted from the first that the overwhelming majority of the people at this time desire the ratification of the treaty, and my impression is that effect has recently been confirmed by the unmistakable evidence of public opinion given during my visit to seventeen of the States.
I have endeavored to make it plain that if the Senate wishes to say what the unqualified meaning of the League is, I shall have no objection to interpretation accompanying the act of ratification itself. But when the treaty is acted upon, I must know whether it means that we have ratified or rejected it. We cannot rewrite this treaty. We must take it without changes which alter its meaning, or leave it and then after the rest of the world has signed it, we must face the unthinkable task of making another and separate kind of treaty with Germany. But no more assertions with regard to the wish and opinion of the country are necessary to me."

OPEN TO INTRIGUE.
"It is now ready for the consumption of the old offensive and defensive alliances which made settled peace impossible. It is now ready again to every sort of intrigue. The old spies are free to resume their former villainous activities. They are again at liberty to make it impossible for government to be survived. The old intrigues are being among their own people, what internal disorganizers are being fomented without the consent of U. S. League of Nations, there may be as many secret treaties as ever to destroy the confidence of governments in each other and their validity cannot be questioned. None of the objects we professed to be fighting for has been secured, or can be made certain of without this nation's ratification of the treaty and its entry into the covenant. This nation entered the great war to vindicate its own right and to protect and preserve free government. It went into the war to see it through to the end, and the end has not yet come. It went into the war to make an end of militarism, to furnish guarantees to weak nations, and to make a just and lasting peace. It entered it with noble enthusiasm. Five of the leading belligerents have accepted the treaty and its ratification will whether this country will enter and enter wholeheartedly."

PLAY LONG HAND.
"If it does not do so, the United States and Germany will play a long hand in the world. The maintenance of the peace of the world and the effective execution of the treaty depend upon the whole-hearted participation of the United States. I am not stating it as a matter of power. The point is that the United States is the only nation which has sufficient moral force with the rest of the world to guarantee the substitution of discussion for war. If we keep out of this agreement, if we do not give our guarantee, then another attempt will be made to crush the new nations of Europe."
"I do not believe that this is what the people of the United States will be satisfied with. Personally, I do not accept the action of the Senate of the United States in its decision of the nation. I have asserted from the first that the overwhelming majority of the people at

firmed by the unmistakable evidence of public opinion given during

kind of treaty with Germany. But
no more assertions with regard to the wish and opinion of the country are necessary to me."

NO THIRD TERM WORD.
President Wilson said nothing whatever about a third term for himself, neither did he make any formal announcement of his intended retirement to private life, something which he has said he would do before the coming of the new year. He said nothing about the nomination, although it was presented in a paper from Philip Dink to Philip Dink, and lay the cause before the people who do believe in prohibition.
President Wilson said nothing

do before the coming of the new
year. He said nothing about the nomination, although it was presented in a paper from Philip Dink
to Philip Dink, and lay the cause before the people who do believe in prohibition.

Mr. Bryan, showing all the old-time vigor with which he led the fight for the President's nomination at Baltimore in 1912, declared that the Democratic party could not go before the country on the issue, because it involved a delay of fourteen months, and meant success only if the Democrats captured a two-thirds majority of the Senate. The party, Mr. Bryan declared, "must secure such compromises as may be possible."

The disagreement between the President and his former Secretary of State, the first in public view since Mr. Bryan left the Cabinet because of his disagreement with the President's course in the diplomatic negotiations with Germany, was thus disclosed as a fact, although it had been rumored and reported in the underground currents of national politics.

Mr. Bryan in his prepared address said nothing bearing on any ambition toward a fourth Presidential nomination, but before reading his manuscript he said he had nothing to add to the President's dinner would not listen to him with the thought that they were listening to a candidate.

Mr. Bryan then read his prepared address, saying he would follow his duty because he had written before he knew the contents of the President's letter.
He proceeded, however, Mr.
Bryan interspersed numerous intermittent arguments.

ADVISES AGAINST DELAY.
The President, we remember the announcement with which he denounced the Republicans for seven months delay, and referring to the "manuscript" what will be our answer to Europe now if we delay for another month or two? We consult the American people.
If I know the American people," he continued, "I have written before he knew the contents of the President's letter, and I have written before he knew the contents of the President's letter."

GIFT OF SPEECHES.
Senator Pomerene: Ratify the treaty with or without reservations.
Former Secretary McAdoo: An announcement of Republican administration but no expression about the League.
Secretary Daniels: Mr. Bryan is entitled to credit for the League of Nations treaty because his peace-investigation conventions were the groundwork for it.
Senator Hitchcock: Honorable compromise on the League question, or a final fight.
Senator Owen: Immediate ratification, and proceed with reconstruction legislation.
Chairman Cummings: "Inevitable impulses" are carrying the Democratic party "eastward and nearer to victory."

picks the delegates-at-large to the conventions pick the district delegates.

The machinery is thrown back upon the old-fashioned caucus system."Gen. Wood will have the Minneman Lindquist. "The state was always strong for Roosevelt, who carried it in 1912, and Wood is the boundary of this time."Senator Johnson, of course, got a great reception at his meetings against the anti-Wilson outpouring, nothing else.

Johnson cannot carry any district."Our troubles are straightening into headquarters were inclined to believe Mr. Lindquist was painting a trifle too rosy. They pointed out that in the fight a year and a half ago, the league, with only 50,000 members in Minnesota, polled about 150,000 votes for its Gov.

landslide. The league's strength say it will have at least 100,000 votes this year, which may put the state in a perilous condition.THE PRIZE PUZZLE.

North Dakota is the prize puzzle for managers of candidates. The Nonpartisan League controls not only the state government, but also the state machinery of the Republistate chairman, Fowler's right-cans have to run under an independent label.

CONFERENCE THREE DAYS.

The action was the result of a conference lasting three days, out of which emerged also a plan for management. Col. W. C. Proctor of Cincinnati, who has been business manager, now becomes the real director of the campaign. John T.
King, national committee man from Connecticut, who was field manager, retires as active head of the movement. Although in Chicago, he was not in the conference. For weeks there have been "jurisdictional disputes" among the leaders, chiefly over the matter of overlapping authority, and there have been quiet protests that Mr. King overstepped his powers to some extent in the matter of "gentlemanly agreements" not to make active invasion of some States.
Col. Proctor's idea has been to campaign every State.Washington headquarters are to be opened at once, in charge of Senator Moses of New Hampshire, who was here yesterday. Atop of the announcement came word that Charles M. Schwab had announced himself in New York for Wood.Twelve States were represented at the conference. Some of them by phone, as, for example, Kansas,

BANKING REFORMS.

To remedy this condition, the resolutions continued, "the Democratic administration in the hands of the party in power, by the establishment of a sound banking system, entitled the party to the everlasting gratitude of the country, while the farm loan banking system gave to our agricultural interests the relief long demanded by them."The resolutions then referred to the enactment of the law giving "the people the right to elect their U. S.
Senators by popular vote," and said the party had "enfranchised the woman and for the first time gave labor the fair showing to which it was entitled."Referring to the avowed objects of the country's participation in the war, the resolutions continued: "The people of the United States, who desire to have the treaty ratified with certain reservations that seem reasonable to them, to vote accordingly."

"ARROGANT" REPUBLICANS.

A treaty to this end was negotiated and for seven months it has been throttled by the Republican Senators of its own party, who desire to have the treaty ratified with certain reservations that seem reasonable to them, to vote accordingly."At a result, the resolutions said, proclamation of the end of the war is delayed." It declares that the able promptness, the world would declared that the Republican party would win the next Presidential election by a big margin.He was unflinching in criticism of the administration. He declared that promise had been made and peace given to the world.Former Ambassador Gerard: The country demands that both sides refrain from a compromise. The issue is clear. The President has defined it beyond cavil.The Washington Democrats on hand for the dinner had swamped the available accommodations of any one hotel in town, and the party was divided into two dinners at two separate hotels, a block apart. National Chairman Cummings presented the first dinner. The dining-rooms were packed, tickets were at a premium and there were many disappointed ones who had to content themselves with straining their ears at the doors.

POAST IN WATER.

Both dinners began with toasts drunk to the health of President Wilson, the guests elevating goblets of "Potomac" water.When Chairman Cummings in his opening speech declared "tonight we invoke the militant spirit of Andrew Jackson," there was a roar of applause and cheers, and another when he declared the Democrats would stand "to the campaign of 1920 with the utmost confidence."The dinner rose and cheered the chairman's reference to President Wilson's "wise leadership."

"NEARER TO VICTORY."

Mr. Cummings declared that "inevitable impulses" were at work "trying us each day nearer and nearer to victory.""The cause is sacred," he said, "and the contest is but the measuring of our spirits."For the present we are enduring with what patience we may an interlude of Republican incapacity.
The American people have not forgotten the lessons of the past and are still paying a staggering penalty for the election of a Republican President, Woodrow Wilson, November, 1918. Since that time all processes of government have been delayed, the work of reconstruction has been delayed, the development and extension of American life has been delayed, the peace of the world has been postponed.Contrasted with their patient interlude we place our unparalleled record in peace and in war, our record in the carrying of the burden of the world to greater heights of prosperity and honor and success than she has ever known.

CHEERS FOR MESSAGE.

There was not a sound in the big dinner hall when Chairman Cummings read President Wilson's message, but there was vigorous cheering at the first reference to failure of the Senate to ratify the peace treaty.Another and greater outburst followed the President's statement that personally he did not accept Wilson's recommendation to failure of the Senate to ratify the peace treaty.Everybody stood at the conclusion of the reading and cheered.
"Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," the crowd shouted, and then, after again, the demonstration continued several minutes.At the other banquet hall Vice-Chairman Kramer's first mention of President Wilson's name brought the diners to their feet cheering, and the reading of the President's message frequently was interrupted by cheering and rebel yells.

BLASTED BY JEALOUSY.

Atty.-Gen. Palmer declared that the President had "put his finger on the raw spot in our body politic at this hour.""If the Republicans throw this treaty in the face of the people, we shall stand. The part which the Republican leaders have chosen to play has been merely to criticize our methods, belittle our achievements, investigate our victories and rob America and the world of their fruits. Let them stand also upon their record. They laid at our door America's alleged unpreparedness.
It may be true that in the narrow military sense we were not ready.
But the war was fought not by armies, but by nations.""Reluctant the offer of $10,000 made by the Republicans for the best platform, Mr. Palmer declared that if the opposition stood upon the platform would be composed of planks promising to undo all that the Democratic party has done."When Senator Hitchcock declared that "if the Republicans throw this treaty in the face of the people, we are ready to take up the gauntlet," the diners shouted approval.

eventually would give the Democratic party credit for securing woman suffrage, Mrs. Peter Olsen said suffrage workers had asked the Republicans for the ballot ever since the Civil War, but could not get it

THREATEN TIE-UP OF BROOKLYN RAIL LINES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Complete suspension of the subway, elevated and surface car lines is threatened unless the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company is permitted to increase its fares. Federal Receiver Garrison has filed in his petition for an 8-cent fare, just filed with the Board of Estimates.

It is estimated the lines will suffer a deficit in operating expenses and taxes of more than $1,000,000 for the year ending September 1, 1920, he said.

Applications for a 3-cent fare on the Interborough subways and elevated on the B.R.T. system and on the surface lines of the New York Railways Company have been formally placed before the board.

The petitions set forth that the form of financial relief is required and asked that it immediately be granted for the period ending June 30, next. During this time the applicants proposed a permanent plan of relief shall be worked out by the companies, the city and the Public Service Commission.

with "certain phases" of the Flume situation. He stated there was no disagreement between himself and D'Annunzio on Italy's aspirations for the annexation of Fiume.

"I am going to Paris on a special mission committed to me by Capt. D'Annunzio," he declared. "I am unable at present to tell you what my mission is, but it deals with certain phases only of our question."

COULDN'T AGREE.

"Reports that I was in disagreement with Capt. D'Annunzio were true. Our differences were over questions of policy. I left the office of chief of the Cabinet and went back to my battalion because of our inability to agree, but there is no conflict between Capt. D'Annunzio and myself on Italy's aspirations for the annexation of Fiume."

Asserting the determination of the D'Annunzio adherents not to yield until their cause had succeeded, Maj. Giuriati said a trainload of food arrived at Fiume today.

"We have enough food to keep us going," he declared, "but in any event we will be faithful to the end in our determination to bring about annexation. We are united. The national council now is in complete accord with Capt. D'Annunzio. The fact that I am going to Paris with full powers to act proves what I have said."

LIBERTY BONDS
ONLY RED BAILIron but Ironed Ruling at Ellis Island.Bonding Houses will not Assist Enemy Aliens.Soviet "Ark" is Reported at the Kiel Canal.

(By A. P. MARY WHELAN)

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—"Parlor Boleheviki" who are raising a fund to assist comrades in detention proceedings will have to try to it in Liberty Bonds in order to get their friends out on bail.The authorities at Ellis Island announced today that offers of cash bail had been refused since the island had no facilities for handling large sums. A surety company has refused to supply bonds, even against adequate cash security, on the ground that it did not care to aid enemies of the country.The immigration authorities, however, will accept Liberty Bonds, and release bonds on bail as soon as their preliminary hearings before inspectors are completed.

SOVIET "ARK" AT KIEL.

(By A. P. MARY WHELAN)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The Soviet ark, the "Ark", with its cargo of 249 re-located aliens, is about to depart for the Kiel Canal, according to official dispatches received here today.While still refused to disclose the destination of the ship, officials said "a very good guess might be ventured since passage through the canal has become known."It was believed that the "Ark" would go to the Baltic port, to be transported across the country into Soviet Russia.So far as has been made known, negotiations for the transportation of the radicals across one of the Baltic provinces, adjacent to Russia, have not been completed and the government will await the outcome of the "Ark's" voyage before departing any more radicals.

RECEPTION FOR GEN. PERSHING.

American Commander to Visit Crown City.

Pasadena Lawyer New Head of Legion Post.

New Restaurant to be Opened in Hotel Green.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
PASADENA, Jan. 3.—Gen. John J. Pershing has accepted an invitation to be the guest of the municipality of Pasadena at a morning reception and luncheon at the Hotel Maryland on Thursday, January 23.

The invitation was extended by the Pasadena City Commission, through Chairman A. L. Hamilton. Today Chairman Hamilton received a telegram from Col. Marshall, Gen. Pershing's aide-de-camp, stating that the general will be pleased to accept the invitation. He will motor to Pasadena from Los Angeles on the morning of January 23, and remain in this city and vicinity until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when he will board a Santa Fe train for Phoenix, Ariz.

The general would appreciate an opportunity to meet members of the American Legion and other service men. Col. Marshall wired. The message was sent from Fort Riley, Kan.

HEADS LEGIONNAIRES.
Herbert S. Hahn, Pasadena lawyer and tennis star, heads the Pasadena Post of the American Legion as Commander during the coming year.

Other officers of the post are: First Vice-Commander, Dr. Charles D. Lockwood; Second Vice-Commander, Harrison Baker; Treasurer, Harold Schaffer; members of executive committee, J. E. Davis, N. S. Shupe, George A. Clark, C. Elton Musick, George Sablin, Clyde Warren and N. C. Sweet. The executive committee will appoint a secretary, who also acts as manager of the Soldiers and Sailors Club.

BIG RESTAURANT PROJECTED.
A deal was closed today by J. B. Conington, president of the California Hotel Company, and Rene Black, formerly of New York and Los Angeles, for the opening of a large restaurant on the corner of Cherry and Main streets in the new wing building of the Green Hotel.

The space, now unused, is being remodelled and fitted up at a cost of $25,000. Mr. Black, who is now here, says the advent of prohibition will not mitigate against the success of a large French restaurant, the first of its kind in Pasadena. It is stated that the new restaurant will have no connection with the Leland hotel.

JOINS CANNING COMPANY.
L. G. Miller, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, has resigned his position to become assistant to President of G. E. Oiler of the Pasadena Canning Company.

SCHOOL REGULATES ATTIRE OF PUPILS.

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 3.—Loud clothes are under ban at the High School. Merely as a class prank the seniors recently appeared with their neckties, the girls wearing their hair flowing; then the sophomores went them one better by coming out in hose that fairly screamed in its bright hues. The seniors and freshmen combined force and spent the day capturing sophomores and unhooking them on the school grounds.

Now the principal has taken cognizance of the affair, and issues the edict that the ties and socks, the dresses and hats must be simple of color, simple of style and in no way such as will attract notice.

FOURTH ARREST IN BIG WHISKY CASE.

AUTO DRIVER ACCUSED OF HELPING STEAL SEVENTY-TWO CASES OF LIQUOR.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SAN DIEGO, Jan. 3.—Lee Mount, local auto driver was arrested today charged with complicity in the disposal of seventy-two cases of whisky, which were taken from a garage in November and placed in the Maryland Hotel.

Frank Green, Paul Maggiora and George Jenkins, employees of the hotel, are being held for trial in the Superior Court on the charge that they received the whisky knowing it had been stolen. It is alleged that Mount was paid a sum of money for the use of his car and for assisting in getting the proprietor of the garage.

He is also charged with driving Jenkins, Maggiora and Frank Green to Los Angeles to dispose of some of the liquor. Jenkins was cashier of the hotel, Green was the bartender, and Maggiora worked in the place. The whisky was taken from a garage, where it was stored, and was not located until some days later by the police.

TO SPEND BIG SUM.
Ranchers in Sierrita Valley Vote to Issue Bonds.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
PORTERVILLE, Jan. 3.—More than the required two-thirds of the stockholders of the South Tule Independent Ditch Company, the association of property owners owning the canal which irrigates the Sierrita valley, have approved of the plan suggested by the board of directors for the issuance of $100,000 in bonds.

The plan would be used for the construction of a reservoir to store the water to which the company is entitled from the Tule River, cementing lateral canals and other conservation measures.

Plans are being made for filing a suit in the Superior Court to determine their right to take this action, and the decision will be appealed before construction is actually started.

LOAD BIG SHIP FOR SINGAPORE.

Freight for Orient Exceeds Boats' Capacity.

Railway Makes Appraisal of Land Wanted by City.

Shipyard Worker Killed When Hit by Auto.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Jan. 3.—Southern California importers and exporters have responded heartily to the call for cargo for the Los Angeles-Pacific Navigation Company's new steamer, West Montpelier, which is to sail for Singapore, and more cargo has been received so far than the vessel can carry. Some of the freight will have to be held until next month, when the second steamer of the company, the West Hills, will sail.

Another large shipping firm is to make San Pedro a regular call if cargo inducements offer. The steamer West Cayote of the European-Pacific line will call here in a few days from London, via Norfolk, Va., and will take cargo here and at northern ports for Europe. This company has nine big vessels on the run between Puget Sound, San Francisco, Los Angeles Harbor and European ports.

APPRAISED LAND.
It became known here today that Southern Pacific officials are now engaged in making an appraisal of their land holdings at Point Fermin, which the city proposes to purchase for the site of the new submarine base, following the visit to the harbor yesterday of Southern Pacific administrators.

The city has set a price of $5000 per acre on a large tract held by the Southern Pacific, but it is estimated that the railroad is dissatisfied with this amount. Their appraisal will reach at least double that figure. It is estimated in real estate circles here. The city has set a price of $775,000 for the purchase of the necessary land for the submarine base.

KILLED BY AUTO.
William P. Church, age 37, an employee of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, was almost instantly killed when struck by an automobile driven by E. J. Vernon of 1323 West Fifty-second street, Los Angeles, this morning. Church was on his way to work at the shipyard when he was struck while crossing Harbor boulevard. He is survived by a wife at 380 Hards street.

The Coroner will hold an inquest at the Goodrich undertaking parlors tomorrow.

WOULD GIVE ADVICE.
That an advisory committee be appointed from San Pedro to suggest to the Los Angeles Harbor Commission just how the harbor bonds recently voted should be expended, was the recommendation made by City Attorney Burnell at a luncheon given by the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce today.

OFFICIALS VISIT HARBOR.
Chief of Police George K. Home and other police officials were visitors here today with Police Captain W. L. Spellman, inspecting a launch which the city proposes to buy and fit out as a police patrol boat for the water front. An appropriation was made recently by the City Council to purchase the boat.

FUEL FAMINE.
(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
TULARE, Jan. 3.—Tulare is in the grip of a fuel famine which has already reached the annoying stage and which may easily become serious. None of the coal yards here is able to supply coal of any class and they have no assurance from their wholesalers when their demands can be met.

Because of the shortage of labor last fall there is a lack of wood, which amounts almost to a famine, and for this class of fuel supply there is little prospect of immediate improvement.

START CEMENT MILLS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
COLTON, Jan. 3.—For the first time since the beginning of the war, the Colton Cement works are operating at full capacity. Three kilns were put into operation about two weeks ago, which had been idle since the beginning of hostilities. The increased cost of fuel with which to operate the furnaces which manufacture the necessary clinker, forced a suspension of this work, and consequent laying-off of men. The falling-off in building, as a result of the general suspension of all non-war activities, caused a great reduction of output. But with the present building activity and the great demand for all kinds of building materials, even operating at full capacity will not supply the needs of the market. More than 300 men are now on the payroll.

PAY CHURCH DEBT.
(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SANTA ANA, Jan. 3.—Through a donation of $1000 by Mrs. M. M. Crookshank and $1000 additional raised among other members, the debt of the First Congregational Church was paid last night on the occasion of the thirty-first anniversary of the organization of the church. Another pleasant feature of the "birthday" celebration was the presence of Rev. James H. Harwood, who was first pastor of the church, when it was organized thirty-one years ago.

LOAD BIG SHIP FOR SINGAPORE.

Freight for Orient Exceeds Boats' Capacity.

Railway Makes Appraisal of Land Wanted by City.

Shipyard Worker Killed When Hit by Auto.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Jan. 3.—Southern California importers and exporters have responded heartily to the call for cargo for the Los Angeles-Pacific Navigation Company's new steamer, West Montpelier, which is to sail for Singapore, and more cargo has been received so far than the vessel can carry. Some of the freight will have to be held until next month, when the second steamer of the company, the West Hills, will sail.

Another large shipping firm is to make San Pedro a regular call if cargo inducements offer. The steamer West Cayote of the European-Pacific line will call here in a few days from London, via Norfolk, Va., and will take cargo here and at northern ports for Europe. This company has nine big vessels on the run between Puget Sound, San Francisco, Los Angeles Harbor and European ports.

APPRAISED LAND.
It became known here today that Southern Pacific officials are now engaged in making an appraisal of their land holdings at Point Fermin, which the city proposes to purchase for the site of the new submarine base, following the visit to the harbor yesterday of Southern Pacific administrators.

The city has set a price of $5000 per acre on a large tract held by the Southern Pacific, but it is estimated that the railroad is dissatisfied with this amount. Their appraisal will reach at least double that figure. It is estimated in real estate circles here. The city has set a price of $775,000 for the purchase of the necessary land for the submarine base.

COAST SCHEDULE PASSED AT LAST

Everything Serene During Last Day of Meeting.

Outlaws Return to Home Fold with a Bang

Los Angeles vs. Oakland Here April Sixth.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—All was as serene as a summer morning at the meeting today of the Coast League directors. The schedule was adopted and the out-of-town fellows went home.

The "outlaws" were back in the field calling the other fellows brothers and Judge Wallace Wilberforce McCredie was not asking for a thing except the best of it for Portland. His face was childlike once more, and he did not look much like the battling jurist of the day before who was going to take the stender frame of Doc Strub and drape it artistically over the radiator in the oak room of the St. Francis Hotel. William H. Klepper of Seattle, fellow outlaw of W. Wilberforce McCredie, wanted to be friendly with everyone, for he had made all preparations to go home last night and he wanted the good will of the brothers on the journey.

WOW!

When Judge W. Wilberforce McCredie was foaming about taking Portland and Seattle into an outlaw league if the Cook schedule was adopted, no one who knows him took him seriously. He knows the franchisees in those teams would not be worth a sick dime in an outlaw league and the Judge has never been known to let his temper get the best of him when it was going to cost him some money. While McCredie and Klepper were putting and threatening to take their toys and go home if they did not get their own way, Billy Lane of Salt Lake stepped into the front and center of the picture as the biggest man in the meeting. He dejectedly took the words of the town in order to have peace. And he did not ask for any favors, either. He said Salt Lake had always met its obligations and would continue to do so and if McCredie, Powers and Klepper thought Salt Lake was small to sign the league that Salt Lake would meet any guarantee the others proposed.

REGULAR GUY

There's a regular sportsman for you. There are too few of them in baseball these days. And don't forget that Salt Lake will have a regular ball club this year, for Eddie Johnson is as busy as a bird getting rid of disgruntled players, and building up a machine that he hopes will run smoothly and hit on all cylinders.

Clark Griffith has offered Sam Agnew, a catcher, and Jordan, a pitcher, formerly of the Buffalo club, first one of the indicators. It is rumored that Jimmy Caveney is the man wanted, though Griffith may have his eye on Willie Kamm. In case of a big spill on the turns, the suggestion of the motorcycle stars, Chairman George H. So fast has become the going that Otto Walker, winner of two events at Ascot, is laying aside his pocket-valve machine for a special "light" for the twenty-five-mile race. TO BAN SPIT BALL FROM COAST LEAGUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—The "spit ball" has been barred from the Pacific Coast Baseball League, according to an announcement by Charles Graham, manager of the San Francisco club, here today. The league executives have demanded that a list of all pitchers using this style of delivery be submitted to them in order that they may be notified that they must eliminate this pitching feature, Graham said.

JORDAN BOWS TO ENDICOTT'S SKILL

Endicott defeated Jordan, the L. A.C. billiard instructor, 50 to 31 in seventy-seven innings on the Mercury tables last night. Last night's play was the first of a three-night tilt to decide the three-cushion championship of the Pacific Coast. The match is for 150 points. Endicott hails from Yakima.

"Shrimp" Burns of the Indian Team, who looked like the money last Sunday at Ascot until along in the thirty-eighth lap, when pit stops forced him out of the running. Burns claims that he has tinkered more speed into his motorbike and will make 'em all jump for the honors in the coming races.

MORE SPEED AT ASCOT.

Special Precautions Being Taken in Case of Bad Accidents.

So fast has become the speed at Ascot in the practice for the motorcycle classics next Sunday that special precautions are being taken to save the lives of the riders. The Victoria All-Stars were beaten in the last game, 10 to 4, after scoring the only points made against the Stanford-California team by a field goal. Interest in Rugby was promoted to such an extent by the extraordinary achievement of the local Indians that the University of British Columbia has determined to apply for an annual "big game" against Stanford. Another tour has been arranged for next year. The combined strength of Stanford and California has been named as the logical defender of the United States in the Olympic games. AL GRUNTO MEET DELMONT.

Friday Night Fights Placed on the Boards Again.

Willie Hunefeld to Take Whack at Marshall.

George Moss Hopes to Get the Best of Bert Colima.

TONIGHT'S CARD

Gene Delmont vs. Al Grunton, 133 pounds.
Willie Hunefeld vs. Jimmy Marshall, 155 pounds.
Joe Rooney vs. Charley Moy, 118 pounds.
Bert Colima vs. George Moss, 146 pounds.
Al Williams vs. Ralph Fene, 145 pounds.
Billy Erice vs. Tony Flores, 125 pounds.

Friday night boxing shows will be resumed at the Vernon arena tonight when Al Grunton and Gene Delmont will box the main event. If both boys step true to form a fast contest should result. Grunton has showed better than ever before in his recent starts here, while Delmont showed a lot of class in his recent bout with Jimmy Dundee and made a host of friends by his willingness to mix it. Neither boy will weigh more than 130 pounds for tonight's bout, both being small lightweights.

A few weeks ago Jimmy Marshall was knocked out by Willie Hunefeld and tonight he will try to come back. Whether he will be able to reverse the verdict remains to be seen, but in all probabilities he will last through the four rounds. Another rematch will be that between Joe Rooney and Charley Moy. In a recent bout Moy outpointed Rooney ten to one, but was unable to slow up his tough opponent. Rooney is always aggressive and is likely to take several punches for the privilege of landing one.

Old George Moss will start again, being his opponent. He is a tough and game and likes to mix it. He is just the sort to make a real battle with the old-timer. Al Williams is matched with Ralph Fene and Billy Erice and Tony Flores will box the curtain raiser.

Among the features of the show, which will continue a week, were demonstrations of the radio telephone and telegraph, aerial bombs, torpedoes, machine guns and army and aerial mail machines. The famous Spad, in which Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker brought down twenty-six German opponents, was one of the centers of attraction. Airplane designed for Polar flying with sled runners designed as landing gear were among the exhibits.

GODMOTHER GIVES AID TO AVIATORS.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—The Koncuklo squadron of American aviators on the Polish front has found a much-needed godmother in the Duchesse de Talleyrand, formerly Anna Gould of New York. The Duchesse has presented 5000 francs to the squadron. The pilots receive only 125 monthly, and their food and winter clothing, therefore, were deficient. When volunteering for the squadron the Americans declined the offer of the Poles of greater pay, saying they would take only the amount Polish aviators received.

NEW HAVEN (Conn.) Jan. 8.—A permit for a twenty-round boxing match here between Benny Leonard and Johnny Dundee, January 16, was revoked by Chief of Police Smith today on the ground that the arrangements made outside Connecticut indicated that it was intended to be a decision, or a "bribe fight," which would be a violation of the Sixty law.

Los Angeles Symphony

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Los Angeles Symphony responds as follows to the numerous inquiries of its friends and well-wishers regarding its intentions in view of the published announcement that Mr. W. A. Clark, Jr., has concluded a lease of Clune's Auditorium on behalf of the Philharmonic Orchestra, recently founded by him:

(1) The Symphony will continue its present season, the most brilliant and successful in its history, at Clune's Auditorium, in conformity to published schedule.

(2) The lease of the Auditorium to Mr. Clark for the Philharmonic Orchestra will have no effect whatever on the future of the Los Angeles Symphony, except, possibly, to hasten the day when it will play in its own auditorium.

(3) The Symphony, unexpectedly deprived after this season of the use of Clune's Auditorium, for many years its home, is already in negotiation for the rental of a first-class downtown theater, to be used temporarily, until such time as the Symphony can construct its permanent home.

(4) The Los Angeles Symphony, now in its twenty-third year, is one of our pioneer institutions. It is an institution of the people, existing for the people, founded and supported by the people. At all times one of the highest expressions of community spirit, it has become a civic asset of inestimable spiritual, educational and commercial value to the community. Founded on the principles of community service, serving the same people upon whom it depends, it will withstand all temporary vicissitudes and will grow stronger with each succeeding year.

The Symphony takes this opportunity to thank the public of Southern California for its generous and enthusiastic patronage of this season's concerts, the most noteworthy in the orchestra's career, placing it, beyond question, in the front rank of the symphonic organizations of America.

SCATTER ASHES FROM MOUNTAIN

Rich Woman's Will Contains Unusual Clause.

Wants Powdered Body Flung from Wilson's Peak.

Leaves Large Sum to City Welfare Societies.

Mrs. Flora J. Sory, who died in this city on December 18, left an estate in California and Indiana valued at $175,000, according to a will filed for probate yesterday. The petition was filed by F. J. Wilson on behalf of himself and John C. Harvey of Vermilion county, Indiana, who are named as executors.

Mrs. Sory directed that her "ashes be scattered on some sunny spot near the top of Mt. Wilson, some spot where the first rays of the morning sun will shine."

By the terms of the will $5000 is left to the Los Angeles Young Men's Christian Association, $5000 to the Los Angeles Young Women's Christian Association, $1000 to the Los Angeles Orphan's Home at 215 E. Centre avenue, $5000 to the Little Sisters of the Poor, 1001 and 1003 streets, and amounts of from $1000 to $2500 to various relatives. The residue is left to six brothers and sisters to share alike. They are: Solan S. Johnson, Dana, Ind.; Catherine Johnson, Newport, Ind.; Josephine Harvey, Newport, Ind.; Mrs. A. Johnson, Terre Haute, Ind.; Louis Wright, Newport, and the children of Augusta Wright, deceased.

HOLD SECOND WOMAN IN AUTO THEFT CASE.

ADMITS ONE-TIME CONVICTION FOR FORGERY CHARGE, FEDERAL OFFICIALS SAY.

A woman giving the name of Grace E. Vines, but whose real name is said to be Grace E. Kircher, was taken into custody yesterday by agents of the Department of Justice, in connection with the case involving Wilbur Parker and Miss Goldie Long of Denver, who are held on a charge of violating the new law making the stealing of an automobile and driving it across a State line a Federal offense.

The woman was found at 800 East Fourteenth street. She acknowledged that she came in the machine that Parker was driving, and stole from a garage in Denver, and drove as far west as Albuquerque, where she was taken into custody.

She also acknowledged, Federal officials declare, that six years ago she was convicted of a crime in Judge Willis's court, under the name of Grace E. Kircher, and sentenced to three years in the County Jail, but was released on parole, after serving about five months in the County Jail, and was never taken to San Quentin at all.

It is the theory of Federal officials who have examined the evidence in this case that the trio will be held on the automobile stealing charge by the Denver authorities, and they are being held awaiting removal to that jurisdiction.

SAW WIFE SPOONING.

Husband Describes Love Scene with Other Man; Wins Decree.

How George Shotwell watched his wife, Mary Shotwell, make love to Harold J. Taylor, was told by the husband in Judge Craft's court yesterday. He said he watched the couple through the window of her apartment.

"Mr. Taylor was in his shirt sleeves. He was sitting in a chair. My wife was standing in front of him, caressing his face. She leaned over and kissed him and he pulled her down on his lap and they spooned there for some time," Mr. Shotwell said.

Mrs. Shotwell, who was represented by counsel, did not appear at the trial of her husband's divorce suit. Mr. Shotwell was represented by Tanner, Odell & Taft and was awarded a decree and the custody of a minor child.

AGED BANDIT TRAPPED.

Seventy-Year-Old Robber's Second Try is Like Film Comedy.

The white-haired, 70-year-old highwayman who robbed the Standard Oil Company's gasoline station at 650 South Broadway Wednesday night and escaped with $50 from the cash register, attempted to hold up the Broadway Auto Exchange at 1227 South Main street, last night, but ran into a pair of fighting men, who sent him to the Receiving Hospital with a badly cut and bruised head.

After his wound was treated he told Detective Sergeants Bean and Smith that he is James Barker, 70 years old, and said he was a prospector on the border for many years. He confessed that he had robbed the Standard Oil Company's station, according to Bean and Smith. He was held in the City Jail on a charge of highway robbery.

DRINK STARTS IT.

Barker obtained several drinks early last night, and with "false courage" made his way to the door of the auto market. Encountering L. Carey, an employee of 1145 1/2 South Figueroa street, he flashed his revolver and told Carey to give him all his money.

"I've only got a cent," Carey

NO TRICK TO ROLL BONES.

Court Rules Winner in "Straight" Game is not a Thief.

A clean-up with the "bones" in a dice game can't be made into a charge of larceny, by trick and device if the game is "straight." This was the ruling of Justice Hinshaw yesterday, as a result of which J. O. McCart and Fred Buser, show men, were released and the charges made against them by Andrew Noland dismissed.

Testimony showed that Noland lost $400 in about an hour at craps. He said he was intoxicated, but admitted that there was nothing crooked about the game.

SPEEDING GROOM MUST PAY DAMAGES.

THREE WIN AWARDS IN SUIT AGAINST MAN WHO WAS HURRYING TO AIZAM.

A jury in U. S. District Judge Trippel's court yesterday, brought in a verdict in the consolidated damage action of John P. and Della E. Steele, and H. B. Steele against Robert Scripps, publisher, of $5000 in each case or $15,000 all.

The automobile accident upon which the action was based occurred on the highway near Ocean side, in March, 1917, and it was asserted that the Steeles were severely injured in a collision between their machine and one driven by Mr. Scripps.

It was shown that on the day of the accident the defendant, Mr. Scripps, was on his way to get married at Alhambra, and argued that in such a situation he might have been thinking of some other thing besides whether or not he was on the right side of the road to pass an approaching vehicle.

BURGLARY TRIAL.

The trial of A. R. Majors, accused of two burglaries, was begun yesterday in Judge Willis's court, nine jurors being named. A number of jurors had to be discharged, as they were on a jury which recently tried and convicted Majors. A new trial was granted in the case because of alleged "misconduct on the part of the District Attorney." The case was continued until today as the jury panel was exhausted.

Jackson Day Split Wilson Finish?

Politicians See Chance for Nebraska to Come Back to Supreme Power.

President's Covenant Stand Believed to Presage His Decline.

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—On the birthday of Andrew Jackson, proprietor of the Democratic party, a titanic struggle for party leadership was precipitated between Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, and William J. Bryan, twice nominee for the highest office in the land.

Both addressed the Jackson Day dinner under the auspices of the National Democratic Committee, one by letter from the sick-room in the White House to the chairman of the party and the other from his own at the banquet table.

This struggle, there seems no doubt, will result in the Republican party at the polls in November.

The only point on which the two men agreed, both favoring the League of Nations, President Wilson's policy of peace with the League of Nations, and Bryan's policy of peace with the League of Nations, was the League of Nations. Bryan declared that the League of Nations was the only way to peace, and that the United States should join it.

Mr. Bryan declares for a compromise on the treaty and its acceptance with the Lodge reservation or on the best terms possible. He declares with all the force of his command that the League of Nations is the only way to peace, and that the United States should join it.

BEGINNING OF END? Bryan's declaration, which was a surprise to many, was a clear indication that the President's position was weakening.

CONVENTION PLANS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Plans for the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco on June 22 were discussed by Chairman Bryan and other members of the National Committee today and were to be taken up formally at a meeting of the Executive Committee later.

A committee on arrangements for the convention probably will be announced today or tomorrow. This committee will go to San Francisco within thirty days to look out the meeting of delegates on the convention.

MEXICO EXCUS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(By A. P. Wire.)

Reports of local authorities, disregarded by the Department of Mexican Affairs, declared that the killing of F. J. Hooton and Marie Hooton, Americans, in Tampico, Mexico, several days ago, was not a case of murder, but a case of self-defense.

The opinion of officials was that the Americans were killed by a sign which they carried, and that they were killed by a sign which they carried, and that they were killed by a sign which they carried.
